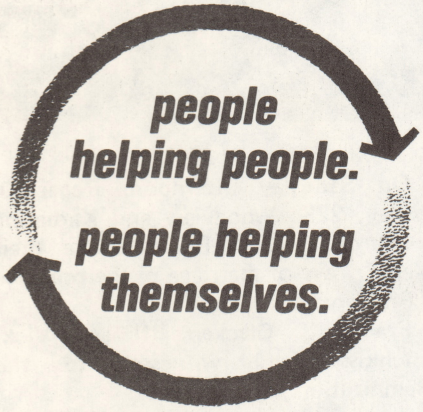
CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

you make the difference!



The CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT'S primary source of fund raising is an annual collection taken up in Catholic parishes throughout the country on the Sunday before Thanksgiving.

One quarter of the collection proceeds remains in the diocese in which it is collected and is used to finance local self-help human development projects. The remaining 75 percent is sent to the CHD national headquarters in Washington, D.C. Applications for funding are annually evaluated by a professional staff, by local diocesan CHD committees, and by a 40-member National Committee of Bishops, priests, religious, laymen, and laywomen. Members of the National Committee are representative of all major ethnic and racial communities and are chosen for their experience in working with and for the poor.

As of June 1974, over 500 projects have been funded by the CHD on the national level, approximately one out of 10 applications received. The most recent allocations are currently being processed and will be announced in November 1974. Grants are allocated without regard to religious affiliation.

To receive a grant, specific criteria must be met. Among these:

1. Most of those benefiting from a project must be from low-income groups.
2. The poor themselves must have the dominant voice in the planning of any self-help project.
3. Funding will not be granted projects which can be adequately financed by other existing government or private sources.
4. The project for which application is made must conform to the moral teachings of the Church.

Highest priority is given to development projects which attack the basic causes of poverty and which will result in institutional change, benefiting a large number rather than a few and encouraging cooperation and coordination among diverse groups of

ATTENTION – PARENTS OF HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Every Monday evening there is a class for adult education at the Parish Center, 517 Elizabeth St., Ann Arbor. Each class has its own topic, and the topics parallel the topics being taught high school students whether in St. Thomas High School or in the Area Religious Education Program, both there and at St. John's.

Nov. 18: MORAL ISSUES: Property, Privacy, Addictions, Dissent (11th Grade)

Nov. 25: CELEBRATIONS: Christian Celebrations and Sacraments (12th Grade)

Dec. 2: THEOLOGICAL VIRTUES (9th Grade)

ATTENTION – PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

The last fall retreat will take place on Nov. 22-23. We will leave from the Religious Education House at 6:00 p.m. Friday and return there by 10:00 p.m. on Saturday. Please register in advance so that the staff can make proper provisions for you.

CONFIRMATION NOTES

Parents, candidates, (7th, 8th, 9th graders) and other adults, the formal preparation for Confirmation begins this month. Any young person wishing to be a candidate for this sacrament is required to come with his or her parents to an initial meeting, at which time we will explain the parish policy regarding preparation for Confirmation. If you have not attended one of the two meetings held last week, please plan to come to the third session on Wednesday, November 20th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Religion Center Library. Only those persons who register at the meeting will be considered as candidates for Confirmation. If you have any questions, please feel welcome to call me at 483-6379 or 483-6396.

people. Applications for at least $10,000 and not more than $200,000 are considered.

Approximately 200 grants are allocated annually by the CHD and are disbursed quarterly after staff review of periodic progress reports.

In addition, CHD "seed money" grants have enabled many self-help community programs to qualify for over 5 million dollars from Federal, State, or other private foundation sources.

Since its beginning, the Campaign for Human Development has demonstrated its strong belief in full accountability to the American public whose generous support has made the Campaign possible. A financial report is issued each year, detailing in full the results of the annual collection and how the money has been allocated.

PLEASE BE AS GENEROUS AS POSSIBLE ... THE POOR CANNOT HELP THEMSELVES UNLESS THEY HAVE SOMETHING TO HELP THEMSELVES WITH.

50 GOLDEN YEARS

Mr. & Mrs. William G. Weber

Thursday, November 7, 1974 was a very special day in the lives of two parishioners and our community which they have served so loyally.

Bill and Emma Weber gathered with their friends to offer thanksgiving to God for their fifty years of Holy Marriage. The Mass of Thanksgiving was concelebrated by Fathers King, Phillipon and Harvey. Fr. King delivered the homily during the Mass; Fr. Harvey read a special message of congratulations from Bishop Zaleski.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Weber have actively involved themselves in the life of the Church, both locally and on a diocesan basis. Emma still continues to care for the sacred vessels used at the altar.

We offer them our thanks for their selfless dedication and for their living sign of faithful love which has inspired so many.

God bless you, Bill and Emma, with many more happy years!

PARISH NUPTIALS

Mr. & Mrs. David P. Barlage

David P. Barlage and Cherie L. Parks exchanged their vows of Christian marriage during a Nuptial Mass celebrated by Fr. Harvey, on Friday evening, November 8, 1974 in our church.

Dave is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barlage of Willis; the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parks, Sr. of Westland.

Jude Barlage and Cindy Mardirosian were the main witnesses.

Duane Noworyta, brother-in-law of the groom served as commentator and lector for the wedding Mass. Music was provided by Paul Thibodeau, and James Jackson, guitarists, Collette Cullen, solist, and Marie Stachlewitz, organist.

Among the many relatives and friends participating in the celebration were the Theology students from St. John Provincial Seminary, Plymouth, who will be ordained Deacons next month. Some of the members of the class assisted the bride and groom in preparing the wedding liturgy with Fr. Harvey and then spent time with the class critiquing the celebration as part of their Practicum in Sacred Liturgy.

Mr. & Mrs. Roger D. Shelley

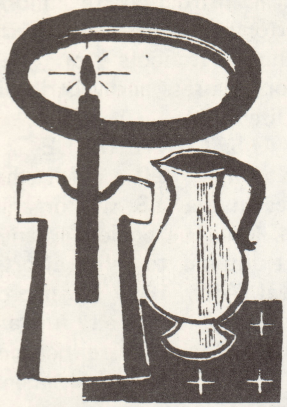
On Saturday afternoon, Roger D. Shelley, 2286 Woodview and Katherine E. Burge, 1423 LeForge, spoke their solemn vows of marriage in the presence of Fr. Harvey.

Francis J. Glacken, III and Vicki Hotchkiss were witnesses to the solemnization.

We extend our congratulations to Dave and Cherie and to Roger and Kathy in this time of new beginning. May their lives be filled with happiness.

SPECIAL BINGO NEWS

Since we are so close to Thanksgiving, our Bingo Committee has decided to give a guaranteed $500.00 as the Jackpot on WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20th. Also, the prizes for the intermission games will be turkeys, or in the case of 2 or more winners, the draw will be for a turkey or extra cards in the Jackpot Game. If you haven't been to Bingo here yet, this is a good time to come. Who knows, you may be $500.00 or a turkey richer!



NEW LIFE IN CHRIST

The following were welcomed in the Christian community of St. John's through the Sacrament of Baptism administered by Father David Harvey during the 12:30 Mass on Sunday, November 10, 1974:

LAURA HEATHER CALDWELL, daughter of Charles and Lucy Caldwell; her godparents are Christopher and Catherine Caldwell.

RACHELLE LEIGH DUBRIDGE, daughter of Thomas and Carol Dubridge; her godparents are Michael Yost and Mary Ellen Dubridge.

CHRISTINA LEE McKINNEY, daughter of Patrick and Pamela McKinney; her godparents are John and Mary McKinney.

MICHELLE MARIE SCHEER, daughter of Dale and Diane Bodenmiller Scheer; her godparents are Ernest and Peggy Bodenmiller.

SUZANNE MIRIAM SHANINGER, daughter of Jacques and Joyce Shaninger; her godparents are Frank and Judith Fike.

Welcome Laura, Rachelle, Christina, Michelle, and Suzanne to our parish community!

ATTENTION: CONTRACTORS

The Administration Commission has received blueprints to proceed with the renovation of the church hall area. We would like to employ the services of parishioners as much as possible as we undertake this portion of the hall renovation on a "time and material" basis. If you would like to investigate the job, please notify Dave Wheeler or Fr. Harvey by Wednesday of this week.

Since the next phase of our planned renovation will be the hall itself, we are particularly interested in the carpentry trade, especially those who are able to do finishing work.

We would be happy to answer any questions, but please convey your interest by Wednesday, November 20, 1974.

—Fr. Harvey

Bagels have been nejoyed in the past, and parishioners are beginning to ask when they can be enjoyed again ... so the Coffee & Donut Committee is giving you Bagels on SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24th, after the 9:00 and 11:00 Masses. We hope that those of you who do not have a "sweet tooth" for donuts will be able to enjoy this treat and that many more will join them for something different. We have had a great response after both Masses so we are ordering more to have more ... don't give up on us ... we won't run out again!

ST. JOHN'S ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

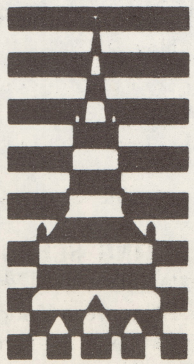
The St. Vincent de Paul Society in St. John's Parish has been actively reorganized for one year this November. One of its greatest desires to is have parish understanding of its background, what it is able to do now, and what is hoped to be done in the future. With that thought in mind, this insert was decided upon as a way of communication with all parishioners.

MAJOR SOCIETY BACKGROUND

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is an international association of Catholic laymen devoted to the service of the poor; the first conference was formed in Paris in 1833 by Antoine Frederic Ozanam and 6 fellow Sorbonne students. Its original title was The Conference of Charity but this title was chanted to its present name in 1834. The principal objectives were stated as the sanctification of members and of society through good works. In 1835, July 19th was chosen as the society's principal feast, the conference placed under the protection of Mary, and a rule had been ratified.

The society grew rapidly and by 1860 had more than 50,000 members worldwide in more than 2,900 conferences. In the next hundred years the society increased to six times the figure with 300,000 members in 21,000 conferences. It had begun as a lay society formed by lay people without the clergy. However, it is totally approved by the clergy; Pope Gregory XVI formally approving it in 1845.

MEMBERSHIP



Different degrees of membership were incorporated. An active member was a male who wished to unite with other men in prayer and works of charity and would participate personally in a conference. A corresponding member was a former active member living in an area where no conference existed who tried to perform acts of charity as had been prescribed by the conference. Honorary members did not participate in active works or meetings but who contributed a fixed sum yearly for the support of conference works. In addition to membership was listed subscribers who were benefactors of the society in various ways.

The conference is the basic unit of the Society. It derives its name from the parish where it is located. Each conference is fairly autonomous in function, with the ascending order of structure as follows:

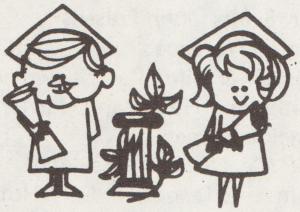
conference - the parish unit particular council - several conferences in an area central council - board of officers from particular councils (Diocesan) superior council - national unification in individual countries council general - worldwide jurisdiction over councils and conferences.
Receives reports, directs policies, guides universal development.

PURPOSE



The fundamental work of the society is the visitation of the poor whether distressed in mind or body in their own homes. Other activities of councils and conferences include hospital and institutional visitation on a regular basis, Christian burial of the indigent, summer vacation outings, summer camps for needy children, guidance programs for young, work with delinquent children, sisitation of prisoners and work with probationers, maintenance of hospices and centers for social outcasts, operation of Catholic centers for seamen, employment services, providing of clothing and furniture for needy families through the conference wardrobes and salvage stores maintained by the Society, catechetical instruction for children and adults, efforts to enroll Catholic children in Catholic schools or Religious Instruction classes, and distribution of Catholic literature.

U.S. CONFERENCE

On November 20, 1845, the first conference in the U.S. was organized in St. Louis, Mo. The Society's early years here were limited to relief efforts on a parish level. After 1860, larger programs were instituted until all fundamental works of the Society were incorporated. Despite the vast involvement of government in social security and public relief programs which characterize 20th century U.S., the Society continues to perform a significant role in alleviating the misery of material want.

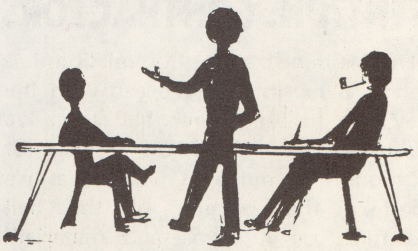
PARISH INVOLVEMENT

In St. John's Parish, there has been a St. Vincent de Paul Society which in former years supported a clothing distribution center, along with food and care being maintained for those in need. This area was managed by the men of the parish who were affiliated with the parish conference. We all remember Ted Weber as Mr St. Vincent de Paul. He and many men working with him kept the conference alive at St. John's.

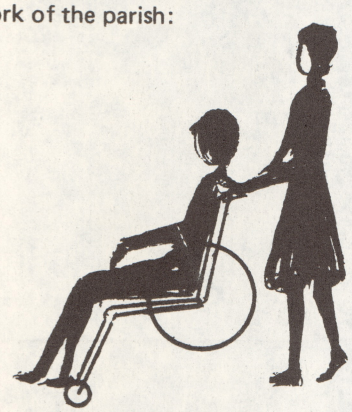
RECENT REVITALIZATION



Community Service Projects

In recent years, however, it had fallen to a few people to distribute care services to those in need. In early fall of 1973, Jack White and Joe DeVooght began to have a series of important discussions on how the Society could be revitalized in our parish. Through their efforts and after many long hours of discussions and decisions, a policy booklet was drawn up in November which would become the care service as promoted by St. John's. This included working with Catholic Social Services and Ypsilanti Area Community Services to help those in need of food, transportation, and lodging.

At the Team Work Week for 1974, other areas of charity were pursued. It was decided to move committees from Parish Service to St. Vincent de Paul which properly belonged there. Therefore for the year 1974-75, the following groups are part of the St. Vincent de Paul work of the parish:



Friendly Visiting

—Hospital and Home Visiting for the Ill and Aged —Emergency Services for those in need of housing, housekeeping, hospital sitting, etc.
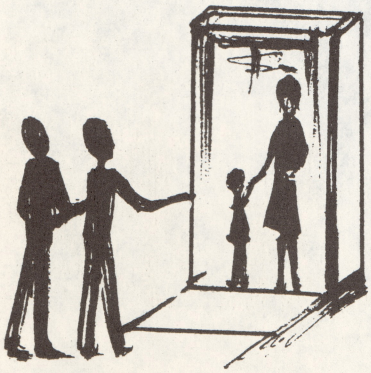
—Ypsilanti State Hospital works



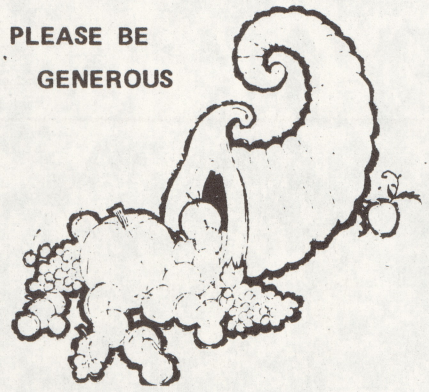
Family Assistance

—Thanksgiving Clothes Drive Sponsorship
—Monthly Food Collections
—Fund Maintenance: Thanksgiving Donations, Calendar Sales, Holy Thursday Donations, White Elephant Monthly, Spring Flea Market
—Liason work with other community agencies

The Executive Members of the St. Vincent de Paul in St. John's Conference are: Jack & Chris White, Joe & Nancy DeVooght, Bob Evans, Sister Carol Denis, Fr. David Harvey. Mrs. Beatrice Byrd is record keeper and publicity agent.

On Wednesday, November 6th, a meeting was called for all those in the above areas of service. Only a few members were able to make the meetings at which time the background work of the Society was pursued and ideas brought forth. Small area meetings will be planned so that all who wish to work in these areas will have a better understanding of their service to the whole society.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS



The last Sunday Food Collection for November will be deferred to the Thanksgiving Masses.

At these Masses we hope the collections will be ample, both for food and donations. Only then will we be able to adequately fulfill needs as they arise. If you will not be here for the Thanksgiving Mass and want to donate, feel free to do so. Mark it for St. Vincent de Paul Society.

THANKSGIVING CLOTHING APPEAL

The annual Thanksgiving Clothing Appeal will be held throughout the Diocese during the week of November 24 through December 1, 1974. The response and support yearly has been traditionally generous and we urge cooperation once again.

Overseas Help

The emphasis this year is on SUMMER—WEIGHT APPAREL, CHILDREN'S CLOTHES, INFANT'S LAYETTES, MEN'S SHOES AND WORK PANTS and BLANKETS. The latter are needed in times of disasters and emergencies.

All clothing collected in the parish will be packaged and shipped directly to CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES. PLEASE CONTRIBUTE CLEAN AND WEARABLE ITEMS ONLY. OUR COLLECTION CENTER IS LOCATED IN THE OLD SECTION OF THE SCHOOL BUILDING — NEEDHAM HALL. You may drop off items there any day of the week or when you attend Mass on Sundays. PLEASE DO NOT DROP OFF ANY CLOTHING AFTER DECEMBER 1ST. If you have clothes to contribute other than those itemized above, may we suggest you take them to the THRIFT SHOP, 14 So. Washington. Many parish women do volunteer work here and they help the poor primarily.

WE HOPE THIS PRESENTATION HAS GIVEN YOU SOME IDEA OF THE WORK OF THE SOCIETY, BOTH PAST AND PRESENT. WE WILL CONTINUE TO GIVE YOU MONTHLY REPORTS ON THE WORK CONTINUED IN THE PARISH. PLEASE HELP US TO HELP THOSE IN NEED IN THE PARISH AND IN THE COMMUNITY.

PARISH COUNCIL MINUTES
GENERAL MEETING
NOVEMBER 11, 1974

MEMBERS PRESENT: Sr. Carol Denise, Lee Sanford, David Wheeler, Natalie Boyer, Vera Clyne, Richard Wagner, Gerard Wideman, Ray Carpenter, David Rocha, Candy LaPonsey, Don Racine, and Father David Harvey.

MEMBERS EXCUSED: Doreen Binder

PARTICIPANTS: Ethel O'Connor

1. The meeting was called to order by President Lee Sanford at 8:04 p.m. The opening prayer was led by Father Harvey.
2. Minutes of the October 14, 1974 meeting were approved.
3. COMMISSION REPORTS:

A. ADMINISTRATION - Chairman, David Wheeler, reported that Phase I is almost complete; Phase III plans are being discussed; the large organ pieces have been moved to the choir loft; convent and school roof replacements are moving along well at a savings, and painting of the school building will be organized. An up-to-date financial report was given. Father Harvey will arrange for the plaque thanking the Boy Scouts for the wheelchair ramp. A motion was made to obtain a telephone in the church hall. Another hall renovation drive will begin.

B. EDUCATION - Representative Ethel O'Connor reported for chairwoman, Doreen Binder, that an elected school board and appointed commission is under study; Sister Gail presented a draft on the Confirmation manuals; a study has been completed on the adult education programs preferred; parent meetings are being well attended for First Communion and Confirmation; the Youth Committee is assembling ideas on various projects for grades 7-12.

C. SERVICE - Chairwoman Natalie Bowyer reported that suggestions have been made on the kitchen renovations; coffee and donuts are being well attended and serviced; the Christmas Bazaar will be held this Saturday, November 16; the dinner dance attendance and profits were discussed; the first Tuesday Mass for women was very well attended; the Bingo Jackpot will be for $500 on Wednesday, Nov. 13th and Nov. 20th.

D. WORSHIP - Chairwoman Vera Clyne reported that there are 14 new Extraordinary Ministers who will be trained and then installed at Masses on Jan. 4 and 5; Penance services will be held Dec. 13 and 20; ushers will meet on Nov. 18, and plans for Confirmation are being made.

4. OLD BUSINESS

The Interfaith Council of Congregations' minutes were noted, and a motion was made to recommit ourselves to them for $1,000 in 1975. The Ad Hoc committee reported on various ideas regarding non-participants in the parish. The newcomers list for the month was distributed.

5. NEW BUSINESS

Father Harvey reported on the National Liturgical Convention that he attended. The theme this year was Reconciliation. A new form of Penance and the conception of sin was studied.

6. The meeting was adjourned at 10:00 p.m.
